

Robert Aarts

(808) 223-3636 OR (808) 277-9245

Email: robert.aarts@yahoo.com

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Position: Junior Engineer / Asst.

Transportation Worker Identification Credential

Health: A1 shape

CAREER OBJECTIVE

Junior Engineer working for a stable client with good benefits, to obtain 2nd Engineer, then Chief. I would like to work consistently with and as a team. Go to engineering school.

LICENSES & QUALIFICATIONS

QMED any rating, SD(FH), Certificate STCW – No. 119288, reissued on February 15, 2007 by U.S. Coast Guard.

EDUCATION

Certificate: 8 hour First Aid and CPR

12 hour personal survival

4.5 hours personal safety and social responsibility

Issued 1-26-2007

CERTIFICATE

QMED – any rating / electrician, refrigeration engineer, junior engineer, deck engineer, pumpman and machines. Issued 3-9-90

CERTIFICATE

Basic fire fighting course (SHIP)

Military Sealift Command / Maritime Administration Fire Fighting School

Freehold, New Jersey

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

University of Hawai'i Marine Center – Honolulu, Hawai'i

Oiler - May 2007 to present

Marine Firemen's Union – Honolulu, Hawai'i

Merchant Marines Junior Engineer - September 1989 to September 2004

- Watch engineer lighting off and securing steam plant
- Regulated engines and power transmission to control speed of ship
- Observed that required water levels were maintained in boilers, condensers and evaporators
- Observed that loads on generators were within acceptable limits and oil and grease cups were full
- Recorded temperatures, pressures. Maintained sewage systems
- Operated use of fire fighter's apparatus / fire drills, assigned team one nozzle man
- Repaired machinery using hand and power tools
- Maintained engineering log and bell book
- Presented and expedited solutions to mechanical problems throughout ship – maintained close personal contact with all dealing engineers

United States Navy
Hull Technician E-4 (honorable discharge) 1982 to 1988

U.S.S. Midway CV-41 - F.P.O. San Francisco, California
U.S.S. Harold E. Holt – F.P.O. Pearl Harbor, Hawaii

- Member of the ship's prestigious flying squad as a team member – position: gas test man. O.B.A. and S.C.B.A. training.
- Trained for counter-terrorism with Navy SEALs on Midway
- Performed preventative maintenance on fire main and void systems
- Assigned to ship's carpentry shop, ship fitting and damage control shop. Read blueprints to affected areas

SKILLS

Maritime industry

Hospitality industry (engineering, maintenance, security, customer service, etc.)

Pool, spa, and hot tub maintenance

REFERENCES AVAILABLE UPON REQUEST
