

Stuart M. Hunter

Cell: 510.612.1034

Email: shunter3@sbcglobal.net

Objective:

Responsible, leadership role for an academic/oceanographic research institution, research vessel, or program, such as: Program Manager, Operations, Support, Ship's Master (100 ton), Mate (under instruction, pending licensing). Eager to pursue career path to positions in oceanography of increasing responsibility and seniority.

Career Summary:

November 2008: USCG OUPV Masters License with 100 ton & Sailing endorsements, applied for.

September 2001 to December 2007: District Manager, Farmers Insurance Group. Sole proprietor, owner, under contract to the Farmers Insurance Group to recruit, train, and help insurance & financial service agents succeed at owning and operating their own agencies.

September 1997 to September 2001: Reserve District Manager, Farmers Insurance Group. District Manager apprentice.

February 1995 to August 1997: Stock Broker, Dean Witter (now Morgan Stanley). Grow clientele, provide investment advice and portfolio management.

Career US Navy Officer: Commander, Surface Warfare.

Shipboard Assignments:

- Executive Officer
- Operations Officer (Operations Department Head)
- Chief Engineer, 1200 psi steam turbine (Engineering Department Head)
- Navigator
- Damage Control Assistant
- Repair & Electrical Divisions Officer
- Instructor, Nuclear Power Training Unit.

Shipboard Assignment & Watch Station Qualifications:

- Commanding Officer
- Command Duty Officer
- Officer of the Deck (Underway & Special Operations)
- Tactical Action Officer
- Engineering Officer of the Watch
- (enlisted) Mechanical Operator (nuclear propulsion power plant)

Specialty & (formally designated) Subspecialties:

- Surface Warfare Specialist
- Engineering
- European Regional Military Sub-specialist
- Political and Military Affairs Sub-specialist
- Intelligence.

Noted other assignments:

US Naval Attaché, New Delhi, India

Officer in Charge, FEMA sponsored drought relief mission to Chuuk, Micronesia.

Principal assistant to the Deputy Chief of Staff, Support (a European Admiral), on a senior NATO Staff (Supreme Allied Commander Atlantic).

Senior Civil and Political Affairs Advisor to the US Commander In Chief Pacific, Representative, Guam.

Education:

1969 BA (Biology), Cornell College, Mt. Vernon, Iowa

1982 Graduate, French Naval War College, Paris, France

1999 MBA (International Business), Golden Gate University, San Francisco, CA

Sailing & Small Boat Experience:

US Coast Guard Auxiliary (volunteer):

Flotilla Commander (elect)

Crew Certified (four years)

Coxswain in training.

Olympic Circle Sailing Club (OCSC), Berkeley: US Sailing, BBC Certified.

USCG OUPV masters license with 100 ton and sailing endorsements, applied for.

Awarded First in National Academy of Science state (Minnesota) competition for research paper.

Published, in team collaboration, study of fresh water flora and fauna in S. Mexican river system under grant by the National Science Foundation.

References Available Upon Request