

The 2002 International Marine Technicians Workshop (INMARTECH2002)

October 7 - 11, 2002
Yokosuka, Japan

September 2002

Dear Colleagues

It is a great pleasure to announce the 2002 International Marine Technicians Workshop (INMARTECH2002) that will be held in Yokosuka, Japan, from 7 to 11 October 2002.

The purpose of INMARTECH is to provide a forum for international exchange of knowledge among marine technicians and to improve equipment performance and technical support during scientific cruises on research vessels. Main subject of INMARTECH2002 is Data acquisition, Hardware operation and Data management. INMARTECH2002 is hosted by Japan Marine Science and Technology Center (JAMSTEC) and supported by the International research Ship Operators Meeting (ISOM).

INMARTECH2002 is the fourth biannual INMARTECH workshop. The first workshop was held in 1996 in Southampton, UK, the second in 1998 at the Scripps Institution of Oceanography in San Diego, California, USA, and the third in 2000 at the Netherlands Institute for Sea Research (NIOZ) on the island of Texel, The Netherlands.
