

APPENDIX IX

SECOR Update

SECOR Update

UNOLS Annual Meeting

Virginia Newell

9/20/96

SECOR: Membership

- Open to academic and government laboratories in the Southeastern United States which meet the following criteria:
- They are an academic institution having graduate level marine science programs or a government laboratory whose primary mission involves substantial marine science research activities.
- They operate or use seagoing oceanographic facilities supported to a significant degree by federal funds.

SECOR: Membership Update

- NOAA OAR Laboratory (Associate Member)
 - Atlantic Oceanographic and Meteorological Laboratory
- University of Miami
 - Rosenstiel School of Marine and Atmospheric Science
- University of Texas
 - Institute of Geophysics
- Texas A&M University
 - College of Geosciences and Maritime Studies

IAS Region: Current Systems

SECOR Regional Science Workshop

- Tentatively planned early 1997 in New Orleans
- Develop long-term science initiatives focused on Southeast coast and Florida Straits, Gulf of Mexico, and Caribbean (Intra-Americas Sea)
- Plan multidisciplinary efforts in Coastal Ocean / Inter-American Sea fisheries and ocean science
- Establish a framework within which to structure ship and technical support

SECOR & ASA

- First SECOR Contract -- with Antarctic Support Associates (ASA)!
- Cooperative proposal between 3 SECOR academic institutions
- Contract to provide technical support aboard R/V Nathaniel B. Palmer and R/V Polar Duke for Antarctic operations
- SECOR awarded 2-year contract with two 1-year options

